

First State Global Resources Fund

Monthly Fund Factsheet

30 September 2018

-The Fund invests primarily in equity and equity related securities in natural resources and energy sectors which may expose to price fluctuations and factors affect these sectors.
 -The Fund invests in emerging markets which may have increased risks than developed markets including liquidity risk, currency risk/control, political and economic uncertainties, high degree of volatility, settlement risk and custody risk.
 -The Fund's investments may be concentrated in a single and limited/specialist sector, a small number of companies or fast growing economies which may have higher volatility or greater loss of capital than more diversified portfolios. Investing in securities of small/mid-capitalisation companies may have lower liquidity and their prices are more volatile to adverse economic developments.
 -The Fund may use FDIs for hedging and efficient portfolio management purposes, which may subject the Fund to additional liquidity, valuation, counterparty and over the counter transaction risks.
 -It is possible that a part or entire value of your investment could be lost. You should not base your investment decision solely on this document. Please read the offering document including risk factors for details.

Investment objective & strategy

The Fund aims to achieve long term capital appreciation and invests primarily in equity and equity related securities of issuers engaged in the discovery, development, extraction, processing or distribution of natural resources (including without limitation minerals, water, metals and timber) and energy sectors (including without limitation oil, coal, gas, nuclear energy and renewable energy), or issuers of securities that provide services to the natural resources and energy sectors and which are listed, traded or dealt in on regulated markets worldwide.
